

J. ROCKEFELLER CARILLON

Two Special Concerts in Addition to Regular One Given Yesterday—Fine Program for Tonight.

Two special programs were given yesterday in addition to the regular concert given at 7:30 o'clock in the evening on the carillon at the Church of Our Lady of Good Voyage.

The first of these consisted of special numbers which were played at 7:15 in the special "J.R.C." which was made by the Edinborough, William Cardinal O'Connell. The musicians who furnished these numbers were George B. Stevens of this city and Edward Shippen Barnes, organist of the Rutgers Presbyterian church of New York city. Several selections, including the "Hymn to the Holy Name" and "Hymn to the Holy Cross," were played by the Cardinal, and gave much pleasure.

At 2 o'clock a varied selection was given in honor of the visit of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., who made a special trip from Seal Harbor, Me., for the purpose of hearing the bells. Mr. Rockefeller was accompanied by an organist from West Point and by the organist of his own church in New York.

Congressman Andrew was also present during a part of this concert and lauded quoted to the Times representative that Mr. Rockefeller was very much pleased with the bells both as to their melodious tones and their fine harmony.

An inspection of the bells and an installment into the mechanism of playing the visitors gave added pleasure to the distinguished party. It is probable that a similar carillon set of chimes will be placed by Mr. Rockefeller in his own church at Tarrytown, N. Y.

Mr. Rockefeller Arrived in Afternoon. Just before 3 o'clock, the car containing Mr. Rockefeller and guests drove up to the church, where they were received by a committee, among whom were Alderman Antoine A. Silva and Capt. Manuel Dominguez. A crowd of considerable size had gathered to see Mr. Rockefeller and the number of children gathered there immediately besieged him for money as souvenirs of his visit.

After an inspection of the mechanism of the carillon, Mr. Rockefeller, accompanied by his party, including Congressman Andrew, and Carillon-er Stevens, and the reception committee, went across to the tower of the Edinborough. Here, where the chimes were viewed while chords were played. Later, the party went to the organ, where they listened with much pleasure to the bells while varied selections were rendered.

Last evening's concert gave the same satisfaction as those previously given, the selections being popular songs which made a fine impression at a short distance away from the church, especially upon Mt. Vernon hill and the adjoining territory.

In addition to the numbers previously announced, several selections were given by Mr. Barnes, including "The Star-Spangled Banner," "The Occasion and Improvements," and several duets with Mr. Stevens.

This evening will be devoted to the playing of the "Marches" during the World-war and the Civil war, the program being dedicated to the veterans of the various conflicts in which the country has been engaged. Tomorrow evening will be children's night, and many of the songs which accompanied the games of our childhood will be given, as well as others pertaining to childhood.

Requests are still coming in to Mr. Stevens for the playing of favorite selections on Saturday evenings, the leading request number so far being "Love's Old Sweet Song." Selections from each evening's concerts are being named, and include all the several classes of music which have been presented, including not only the popular selections but also the more classical.

The programs for tonight and tomorrow evening will be found in another column.

FAILED TO STOP AFTER COLLISION

Lillian Geary of 18 Western avenue, reported to the police at 7:35 o'clock last night that her car was struck and X17 struck her machine as she was driving west on Main-street. The auto came out of Pearce street and continued up Chestnut street without stopping. The claimant, Mr. Geary, received a broken bumper and the fender was bent.

GROUP OF PLAYS TONIGHT.

"The Will," "The Wasp" and "The Romançers," three one-act plays will be presented tonight at 7:15 o'clock at the Playhouse-on-the-Moor, East Gloucester, and again tomorrow evening and Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week.

DISTRICT COURT.

George Forward was before the session of the district court this morning, charged with assault and battery. The case was continued until Monday.

The continued case against Robert E. Nolan, charged with reckless driving by the Rockport police, was continued further to Monday.

CHILDREN'S QUARREL.

Police Driver Joseph S. Bowring investigated a report of trouble among children on Mansfield street at 3:35 o'clock last evening.

Carillon Concert Program

THIS EVENING.

An Irish Folk Song, ..... Foote
Solveig's Song, ..... Grieg
"God Guard Thee, Love," from "The Trumpeter of Salsklingen," ..... Nessler

Memories of the World War:

Tipperary.
O'er There.
Oh, How I Hate to Get Up In the Morning.
Pack Up Your Troubles in Your Old Kit Bag.
Kick the Home Fires Burning.
There's a Long, Long Trail.
Joan of Arc, They Are Calling You.
Oh, Grenadier.

In honor of Lester B. Wess Post, Alderman Legate.

Memories of the Civil War:

Battle Hymn of the Republic.
Tenting Tonight on the Old Camp Ground.
Tramp, Tramp the Boys Are Marching.
Marching Through Georgia.

(In honor of Col. Allen Post G. A. R.)

Star-Spangled Banner.

TOMORROW EVENING.

Songs for the Children—

Here We Go Round the Mulberry Bush.
Life Let Us Cherish.
Little Bo-Peep.
Rock-a-bye Baby.
Lovely May.
London Bridge Is Falling Down.
Pop Goes the Weasel.
The Little Duetman.

Folk Songs of Different Nations—

Sally in Our Alley. (English)
Annie Laurie. (Scottish)
The Pretty Girl Milking Her Cow. (Irish)
O'Ma. (Irish)
Santa Lucia. (Italian)
Old Folks at Home. (American)
Sing, Smile, Slumber. (Gounod)
The above numbers will be played by Mr. Stevens. In addition to these there will be numbers by Edward Shippen Barnes of New York City.

George B. Stevens, Carillon-er.

TRAWLER BROUGHT UP MAN'S BODY ON GEORGES

When the beam trawler Sheldrake arrived here yesterday to take out her trip of fish, the skipper reported the finding of a body a week ago while the trawler was fishing on Western Banks. The body was brought up in the net, and as it was minus head and hands, it was impossible to describe the appearance of the person, other than the fact that it was that of a person of stocky build.

ermen claim that because of the peculiar manner in which it was dressed it was not that of a fisherman. The body was clad in heavy clothing, and was found in a box with two sweaters and from a casual observation it is thought it had been in the water for some time. The body was dropped back into the ocean after the clothing had been carefully searched for some means of identification.