

Carillon of 61 Bells Ready to Peal' From Trinity's New "Singing Tower"

Left—The largest bell in the Trinity carillon before being elevated to the so-called "Singing tower." This bell weighs very nearly four tons and bears the inscription: "To the Glory of God. This carillon is the gift of Horace A., Alice E. and Madeline Moses, Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, Springfield, Massachusetts." Right—The entire carillon of 61 bells after being hung in the tower. The bells are arranged in five tiers as follows: First tier, four bells; second tier, six bells; third tier, eight bells; fourth tier, 14 bells, and the fifth tier, 29 bells.